Dear Parents,

Welcome Back and Happy New Year!! I hope you and your family had a peaceful and joyful holiday season. May the New Year bring you much happiness and good cheer!!

I wanted to take this opportunity to thank you for all the wonderful gifts I received. You were all so thoughtful and generous. I am sincerely blessed to have had the opportunity to work with you and your children. I have a truly meaningful job and I enjoy every minute of every day spent with your children (as do my teachers, Ms. Barbara and Ms. Jen!)

We have accomplished so much during our session together. Our toddlers who spent a lot of time exploring and wandering from circle time are now more comfortable with the structured class and now are finding delight with their accomplishments at music time. Our 2 and 3 year olds are showing how they are becoming experts at the songs and putting their own crafts together. The separation class began with the task of getting these children to stay without the comfort of mom or dad and now they have all successfully bloomed into confident, independent children.

For those of you who may not have had me as a teacher this semester, thank you very much for your patronage. I know that when it comes to children's programs you have many options and I appreciate you choosing The Original Mommy and Me to bond with your child. Your kind words and referrals are what continue to make The Original Mommy and Me such a success. Words cannot express how thankful I am that you all stay loyal and remain loyal (even through our upcoming move)

It is my hope that you will give my teachers and I the opportunity to work with you and your children as we move into the Spring/Winter 2012 Session. The new session begins the week of February 13th. We are currently accepting registration for our new session and will be holding open houses in January and February. Remember, classes are filled on a first come, first serve basis—so try to resign soon. I am strictly adhering to 12 children per class so that everyone can truly enjoy the program but that also means the classes will fill quicker.

We look forward to seeing your child grow with us, from babies straight through the pre-school prep classes. Thanks again for your support. As always, I have an open door policy so if you have any questions or concerns please don't hesitate to contact me.

Thanks,

Ms. April
Owner/Director
